

BURGLARS ROB THIS CHURCH

Burglars invaded the sanctity of church coffers last night in East Chicago and took from the residence of Rev. Arthur Johnson, 1121 Beacon st., $46.00, the results of a recent church collection. Nothing else was disturbed. Entrance was gained through a window at the back of the house. Without wasting much time in overhauling things, the burglars apparently made a bee line for the bureau drawer where the money was kept.

Officers Sterling and Kerr were on the case but got no track of the marauders.

GARY MAN HURT AT CUDAHY

Big Fan Breaks Thigh, Collar Bone and Jaw at Plant.

Harry Zoseropoulos, 3344 Van Buren street, Gary, was seriously injured in the plant of the Cudahy Packing Co. yesterday morning.

Zoseropoulos had gone into the drying room for some soap and while there was hit by a large fan. His thigh, collar bone and jaw were broken and he received a number of severe burns and lacerations. His errand did not take him near the fan and why he went near it has not yet been explained.

Dr. G. W. Miller, plant physician, attended him and had him removed at once to St. Margaret's hospital, Hammond.

AUTO SMASH AT HARBOR

At about 4:30 p. m. last evening, an automobile accident occurred at the corner of Forsyth avenue and 14th street, East Chicago, which resulted in a badly damaged car.

I. Brown, 3605 Cedar street, Indiana Harbor, and Dan Olives, 1124 Peoria st., West Pullman, came together with considerable violence. Brown says that Olives ran into him. The former had the latter arrested and he was compelled to put up bond for his defense.

LOWELL

Anthony Nomanon was in Chicago on business yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Wood of Chicago attended the funeral of Mrs. Joseph Dinwiddie here yesterday.

Miss Marie Thomas, daughter of Emory Thomas, died at the home of her father Sunday night. She was about 25 years of age and was a most estimable young lady. The cause of death was pneumonia. Funeral services will be held today, at the home. This is the third death in this family in the past two months. Her brother, Milo, died in France October 2nd and her mother passed away last week.

George Brooks died here yesterday morning. He had been sick only a short time. He was taken with influenza and later with heart failure, which was the cause of death. He was 29 years of age. He leaves his wife and baby, his father and mother and three sisters to mourn. Funeral services will be held Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorraine Dinwiddie of Morgan Park, Ill., attended the funeral of Mrs. Joseph Dinwiddie here yesterday.

Fred Miller left yesterday morning for Odebolt, Ia., where he will visit his sister and then go to South Dakota for a short visit and then go to Riverside, Calif., where he will spend the winter.

ARREST SUSPECT IN HUNT FOR DIPS

Frank Green, held as a suspect, was declared by Policeman Singer, who arrested him last night to be a "dip" and charges may be preferred against the man who claims his home in Gary. Bozo Dumazech, of Indiana Harbor, faced Green in police court this morning and said he was the man "blocked" at the door of a street car a week ago while Dumazech was "frisked" for $400 in U. S. money and $1,000 in Austrian crowns.

Thomas Gallagher, 67 State street, was fined $10 and costs and sentenced to ten days in jail by Judge Kiota for stealing a hand satchel belonging to W. D. Whalen, a soldier on furlough.

MAJ. UMPLEBY ON WAY HOME

Within a few days Major J. A. Umpleby of Gary, and Crown Point and a number of Lake county boys in his command, the 129th Field Artillery, will be home. Major Umpleby and the 129th sailed from Brest, France, on the U. S. S. George Washington, Dec. 15. The 129th was formerly the 4th Indiana National Guard.

AUTOMOBILES COLLIDE

Two automobiles, one driven by Paul Conrad, and one driven by Miss Sarah Morgan ran head-end into each other in the alley off Sixth avenue, Gary, last evening, badly damaging both cars, the occupants of the cars escaping without injury.

MISCREANT STEALS MUNICIPAL XMAS TREE

Some miscreant stole the Gary municipal Christmas tree at Fourteenth avenue and Broadway last night. The tree had been left there last night and was to be erected today by workmen.

The time is getting very short to buy W. S. S. The Lake Co. quota is $20 per capita.

